- A passion for community and a willingness to spend time doing the necessary groundwork and research required to develop resources and connections.
- The candidate will need to be able to develop strong relationships with other community agencies, non-profit and for-profit entities.

- An understanding of and a commitment to concepts of personhood as an important aspect of human relationships outside of the typical care constructs that are usually defined by the lens of incapacity and other vulnerabilities.

1. Overall responsibility in running fun social Zoom programs with speakers and presenters online, plus face-to-face programs starting off at our resource centre in the coming months and in the community. Our resource centre is located at Armour Heights Church on Wilson and Avenue Road Area.
 - Resource centre responsibilities include developing and running community events, researching community resources and keeping the resource library up to date and comprehensive.

The mapping project is also partly a reformatting of our community resource function and the way in which information on resources are accessible both by the wider community as well as Mosaic's own families and clients. The role will therefore involve collating, organizing, and formatting of resource information for use by the wider community and by Mosaic staff, clients and families.

4. Marketing support and other administrative functions.
5. Add our events onto community databases to get our company name in the public domain.

Role Prospects:

This is essentially a non-profit and community outreach role and the starting salary will reflect this. The role itself has the potential to develop to one with much higher levels of responsibility within Mosaic Home Care and Community Resource Center.

Community is a highly important part of the Mosaic model of care and employees who evidence an ability to enhance the operational efficiency and the reach of this resource to the wider community, as well as their ability and desire to contribute to the wider success of the Mosaic model of care would see additional salary benefits, enhanced organizational seniority and opportunities to engage with higher level decision making.

| COMMUNITY OUTREACH & SOCIAL ENGAGEMENT COORDINATOR (COSEC) | | |

At outset this is a position for someone who likes to be creative, who likes to work with people and who values community and who would also assist and support senior marketing, business development and community relations staff with Mosaic's community outreach. As stated the position is one that could grow to include higher levels of influence within Mosaic and the wider community should the candidate express such a wish, but the award of the position itself is not dependent on this higher level of aspiration.

We reiterate that this is an exciting opportunity for somebody who wants to help create and engage with age and person friendly communities in the Greater Toronto Area.

This is a non-profit community outreach role and could grow and develop.
